The Georgia Elections.

· The Georgia elections take place to-day to-morrow and Thursday, when seven Congressmen are to be chosen for the remainder of the present Congress, and for the Forty second Congress, and also members of the State Legislature. The candidates for Congress (arranged in each case in the numeri cal order of the districts) are as follows For the Forty-first Congress-Republicans Richard W. White, Richard H. Whitely, Marion Bethue, Jefferson F. Long, Thomas P. Beard, John A. Wimpy, George P. Burnett. Democrats: A. T. McIntyre, Nelson Tift, William F. Wright, Winborn J. Lawton, D. M. Dabose, William P. Price, Pierce M. B. Young. For the Forty-second Congress-Republicans : Virgil Hilyer, Richard H. Whiteley, John S. Bigby, Thomas J. Spear, Isham S. Fannin, John A. Wimpy, George P. Burnett. Democrats: W. W. -Payne, Nelson Tift, William F. Wright, Winborn J. Lawton, D. M. Dubose, William P. Price, Pierce M B. Young. The Republican majority in the State in 1868 was seven thousand. It is now expected to go Demo cratic by a large majority.

Judge Vernon.

We print the answer of Judge Vernon to the resolutions of the House of Representatives, charging him with contempt. This answer makes it plain that Judge Vernon's offence was the discharge of the Laurens prisoners in the performance of his judicial duty, contrary to the wishes of Joe Crews & Co. A Republican contemporary insists that "politics should have nothing to do "with the impeachment" of Judge Vernon, and that the "questions to be decided simply "concern his discharge of his official duties, "or his failure, as alleged, to discharge those "duties." But, unfortunately, politics and "Joe Crews have had a great deal to do with this unpleasant business.

A RESOLUTION has been accepted in the House of Representatives calling on the Board of Commissioners in each county to make a full report of their transactions during the past three years, and of the total debts now due by each county. Doubtless the Charleston Commissioners will be able to make a report which will be highly interesting if highly unsatisfactory.

Mr. NILES G. PARKER, State Treasurer advertises, under date of December 12, that the "fire loan stock" of the State, amounting to $304,443 89, due in 1870, will be paid in gold on and after December 31, 1870, at the South Carolina Bank and Trust Company, in Columbia, and at the banking-house of H. H. Kimpton, No. 9 Nassau street, New York.

New Books.

HISTORY OF THE PRESETTERIAN CHURCH IN SOUTH CAROLINA. By George Howe, D. D., Professor in the Theological Seminary, Co-lumbia, S. C. Volume 1. Columbia: Duffie & Chapman.

We would call the attention of the reading public to the above work, (which will at some some future time, if encouraged, be completed in another volume,) and urge its claims for purchase and perusal upon two grounds: First, its intrinsic interest and value; and secondly, its claims as a work of Southern authorship. Southern history and Southern manufacture. First, the book contains a valuable outline of the history of South Carolina, In its religious aspect, preliminary to its permanent settlement in the year 1663. This occupies the first book, containing three chapters, detailing those events which led to the emigration of so many of the original settlers of this country from the Kingdoms of England, Scotland, Ireland and France. In book second will be found a detail of the leading events connected with the permanent settlement of South Carolina from 1663 to 1685. The remaining thirteen books give us very interesting contemporaneous history of the formation, early struggles with the Indians, and various trials of the French and other Presbyterian refugees from the religious bigotry and persecution at home, and of their various vicissitudes of progress and prosperity, and as to some decline, until the year 1800. The history of the French Hugueno churches, from their first formation in various portions of the low country, until the final absorption of most of them into other churches, will be found given with great minuteness of detail, and must be very interesting to the numerous descendants from those honored

In the second place, we would urge the purchase and perusal of this book, by all who can possibly afford it, on the ground of patriotic support of what is, in every sense, Southern, and especially South Carolinian. The author is one of the oldest and most venerable professors of the Theological Seminary at Columbia. This work, as we can testify, is the result of hls patience, through laborious and wideextended researches for a period of twenty years. The work is got up with good paper, type and binding by Messrs. Duffle & Chapman, of Columbia, and at a price which requires the sale of the large portion of what is printed to pay expenses. It is a notable and encouraging sign of Southern progress that three works of such permanent value, prominent interest and large expenditure as Dr. Dabaey's work on Sacred Rhetoric, Dr. Thornwell's works, (of which volume I is now ready,) and this work of Dr. Howe, should be presented to the Southern public by Southern publishers about the same time. And as it is of vital importance to the South to loster and reward its own authorship and publications on educational and all kindred subjects, let not this spirit of enterprise be discouraged or swamped. Let all who can buy, and if the volume be not wanted for self-use, let it be bestowed on on e who will use it to advantage. Copies of the work may be obtained from the publishers in Columbia, or from Mr. J. N. Robson in this city.
